What clients are saying...

“When I met Karen, I was living with a guy who was constantly cheating on me. I felt like I was stuck, I had no idea how to get out. Coming to Karen’s retreat was like a wake-up call. Now life couldn’t be better in all aspects. I’m living in Edmonton (I always wanted to live on the West Coast). I’m doing what I love, working as an international wedding photographer. And I’m with a guy who’s my absolute best friend, who believes in me when I don’t believe in me.”

—Tracey Thomas, fine art wedding photographer

“When I chose to leave my marriage of 24 years I was so scared. I knew I had made the right decision but didn’t want to repeat past mistakes. I took Karen’s course 6 months after my separation. I didn’t know it would change the course of my life forever. Karen helped me understand how to change the way I made decisions so I could choose a new path. I almost repeated the bad decisions, several times. Thankfully, I trusted in my new mindset that Karen helped me develop. I opened my heart to the amazing man I now call my fiancé. I took a leap of faith and will be forever grateful.”

—Karen Benell, commercial insurance broker, Gifford Associates Insurance Brokers

“When I met Karen, I was in continuous unhealthy relationships. Since I took her course, I learned so much about myself, what I want and what to do to get there. Karen is truly amazing at what she does and you will not come out the same person. I have now opened my own business, something that was always a distant dream. I am in a really healthy and happy relationship. Most importantly, I am happy and my whole life changed after taking one of her online courses.”
